

BUSH ATTEMPTS TO HEDGE BET

After making some scalding remarks pertaining to OPEC during his State of The Union address earlier this year (2006), President Bush is playing “global hardball”. As a result of also “hocking” the future tax rolls of the UNITED STATES to CHINA via the sale of U.S. bonds in ENORMOUS amounts, President Bush is aligning himself, in a very tactful manner, with INDIA with the formal signing of a bilateral agreement.

Bush has made energy prices a key theme this year. He indicated today (March 3, 2006) that he would tell Congress that “helping” INDIA, whose economy is projected to be one of the five largest by 2020, develop civil nuclear energy would reduce demand for fossil fuels and lower gas pump prices for U.S. consumers. The agreement also involves INDIA putting 65% of its nuclear power production, by mega wattage, under international safeguards for and in “perpetuity” and the INDIA reactors will be utilized and carry a “civilian” status.

STREET TRANSLATION

Bush is really playing himself just like we discussed during our last workshop/seminar (February 4, 2006). He has no other choice but to make this move and “warm up” to INDIA, because he needs INDIA in a TREMENDOUS way. This is why it is and was a prudent move to make INDIA one of your international positions in your investment portfolio.

Remember, the CURVE ANALYSIS {front, inside, and behind}!!!

If you did not pay attention and you are just now investing in CHINA, you are moving into behind the curve... and this will generate a MILD yield in the international investment sector of your portfolio. We called this one 18 months ago when CHINA caused a run on the steel industry.

If you did not pay attention and you are just now investing in INDIA, you are moving into the inside of the curve... and this will generate a MODERATE yield in the international investment sector of your portfolio. We called this Bush/INDIA move 24 months ago when PAKISTAN and INDIA were lining their respected military forces on their shared boarder and threatening WWII. Though the U.S. administration will not admit it publicly, INDIA is seen as a strategic “bulwark” against CHINA.

CHINA, on the other hand, has strategic alliances with PAKISTAN. As a result of Bush’s move and announcements today (March 3, 2006), CHINA will move to “sure up” its position(s) and investments in PAKISTAN.

BUSH ATTEMPTS TO HEDGE BET
STREET TRANSLATION(Cont.)

If you invest in PAKISTAN now, you are moving in front of the curve and this will generate a MAXIMUM yield in the international investment sector of your portfolio.

Like GRANDMAMA use to always say..."do your homework and you will pass the test".

Obtain your investment positions utilizing the information submitted to you and CONTINUE to make the GLOBAL CAPITALISTIC BEAST PAY YOU!!!

If you have any questions or require assistance, simply...

ASK THE WIZ!!!

Property of Ask The WIZ Inc.